The TREASURED LEAVES

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1958

BONLEE HIGH SCHOOL

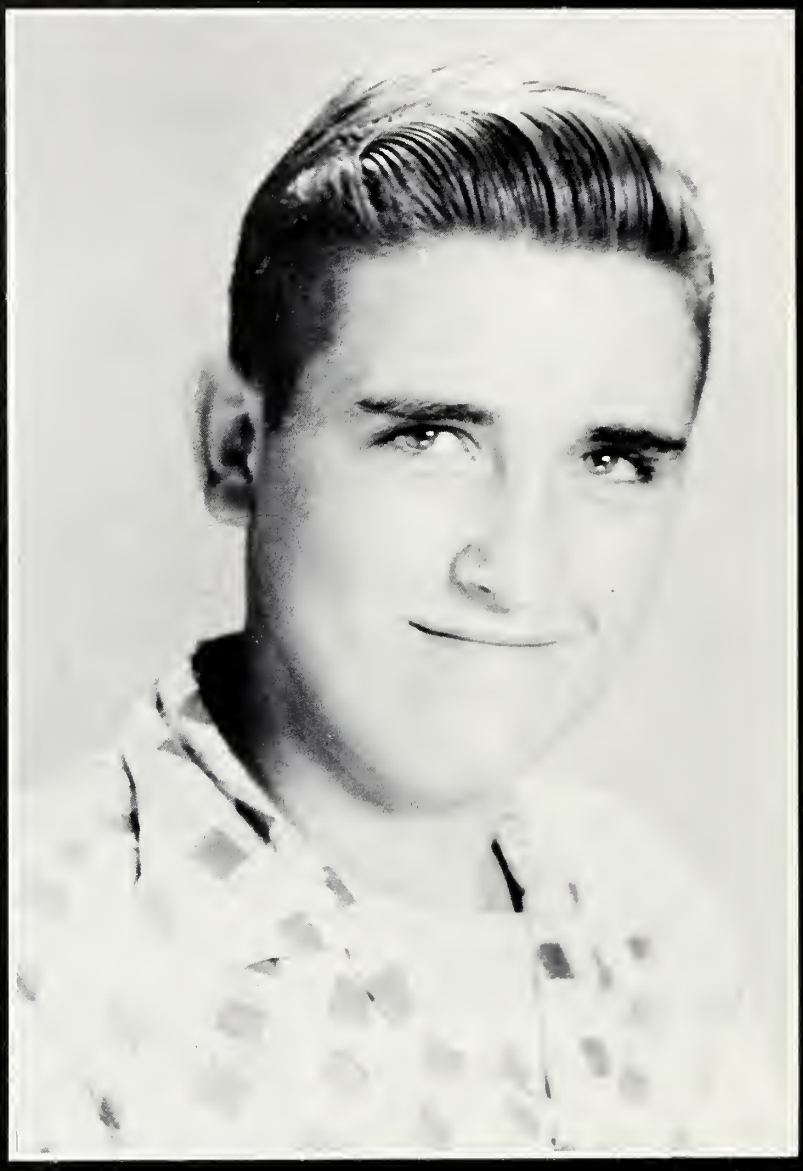
Bonlee, North Carolina

Foreword

The Senior Class of Bonlee High School presents the '57--'58 edition of Treasured Leaves. We hope you enjoy turning the pages and seeing our school days as much as we enjoyed compiling them for you.

Dedication

The class of '58 would like to show our appreciation and gratitude to our home-room teacher by dedicating this yearbook to her. Miss Holleman, in many ways, has helped to make this yearbook one of the finest ever produced by Bonlee High School, and we pay tribute to her interest in us through all phases of our Senior year.



In Memoriam

The Senior Class of 1958 wishes to dedicate this page to the memory of John Lindsy Fields, who was killed in an automobile accident on January 19, 1954. As one of our classmates he had been a leader in all our activities, and we have missed him greatly in the years of our high school life.

This is our effort

Class Poem

Here's to thee, our Alma Mater,
Dear old Bonlee High.
Ever shall we remember you
As future years roll by.

Loyal ever to her standards
As we wave along the way
Never let's forsake them;
But truth and honor portray.

Our past becomes a memory,
Our future still a dream.
Our part is to make it,
to others a bright gleam.

We'll look toward the future
For higher goals to set,
For none of us, as Seniors
Has reached our highest peak yet.

Testimony

We, the nineteen hundred fifty-eight class of Bonlee High School, in the county of Chatham, state of North Carolina, being of strong bodies and almost sane minds, do have a few possessions which we cannot carry with us; we do hereby bequeath them to the following schoolmates in this our last will and testament:

I, Nancy Hilliard, will to my brother, Ralph, my ability to make twenty words a minute in typing.

I, Lib Gaines, will to Marie Tally my basket ball suit and my position as center on the girls' basketball team. Watch those shots, Tally.

I, Earl Justice, will to my brother, Franklin, my seat in the Senior classroom. Keep it warm!

I, George Oldham, will my bus (I have driven it for three years) to my brother Jimmy. Keep it clean, Jim!

I, Sulon Holt, will to my brother, Odell, my position on the football team. Drive hard, "Kitten"!

I, Sarah Frances Clark, will to my sister Jean my seat in Chemistry class. Study, Jean, it's hard!

I, Marie Phillips, will to Doris Brewer my place at the radiator in the auditorium. Keep the trash from behind it, Doris.

I, Betty Jean Blalock, will to Nancy Handcox, my talk in study hall. Watch out for Mrs. Leonard, Nancy.

I, Betty Sue White, will my place--smallest girl in the Senior Class---to my sister. You'll have to start reducing now, Judy.

I, Carlile Fields, will my position as co-captain on the basketball team to Norma Jean Clapp. Hang in there, Shortie, and help them win.

I, Emma Jean Calicutt, will my Superlative award of "Most Studious", to Judy Kiser. You'd better start studying now, girl!

I, Jimmy Moody, will my bus number 82 to anyone who can keep it between the ditches.

I, Harlan Phillips, will my habit of arguing to Norbert Loflin, who never says a word.

I, Patricia Webster, will to my sister Judy my record of attending every football and basketball game during my four years of high school.

I, Mary Frances Clark, will my love for athletics and my athletic medal to my brother, Jim.

I, Boyd Harris, will my position as halfback on the football team to my brother, Buddy. Keep the ball rolling, Kid!

I, Wayne Rose, will all my wise cracks to Johnny Clark. Watch for the teachers, Johnny. They won't appreciate them.

I, Donald Whitt, will my ability to play sports to my brother, C. D. Keep trying and you'll succeed.

I, Patsy Fields, leave my chemistry book (with a sigh of great relief) to Alicia Beaver.

I, Richard Carter, will to my brother, Jimmy, the Lincoln and all the good times that go with it.

I, Luther Jones, will to my brother, Jackie, my "catty" ways. Keep your collar up, Son!

I, Larry Reid, will to Johnny Beal my height and center position on the basketball team.

I, Earl Phillips, will my curly hair to David Cameron. Keep it combed, David.

In the presence of the senior class and at their request and in the presence of one another we do hereby affix our names as witnesses thereto. Signed, sealed, declared, and published this the twenty-fifth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-eight as our last will and testament.

Prophecy

After being out of the country for several years, I came to New York City. While I was attending a fashion show one afternoon, whom should I see but one of my classmates of '58, Carlile Fields, the prettiest model there.

We began talking about our other classmates and I found that she had kept track of them through the ten years since our graduation. She told me that the dresses being modeled were designed by Nancy Hilliard and Elizabeth Gaines. Also, Carlile told me she has twin daughters. When she models, she leaves them at a day nursery run by Patsy Fields. I asked about Emma Jean Calicutt and learned that she is a secretary for a large exporting business firm owned by Jimmy Moody and Earl Justice, here in the big city.

She told me that Betty Jean Blalock and Sarah Frances Clark are hair stylists and own a large shop in Bonlee, our old home town. Gene Wilson is now a pilot for T. W. A. and Marie Phillips loves her job as stewardess on his plane.

George Oldham, who always seemed to like driving a school bus, now drives a Greyhound bus.

Wayne Rose and Harlan Phillips have their own T. V. show called "A Million Laughs" and Luther Jones has his own radio show on which he sings all the popular songs. He always did like to sing (especially in class), so this did not surprise me.

Donald Whitt, Larry Reid, and Boyd Harris are doing very well with the Washington Redskins with whom they play pro. football. That certainly was turning their first love into a life vocation. Also, Richard Carter has a large cattle ranch in Texas. Sulon Holt is captain of a large ocean liner and nobody could enjoy that excitement of travel more than he.

Then we began talking about our teachers, and I discovered there were three among our classmates. Patricia Webster and Mary Frances Clark teach in the brand new elementary school recently built at Bonlee; and Earl Phillips, who could always play the piano so well, gives all his time to teaching music.

Since this accounted for all our classmates, we said good-by and went back to our jobs, both feeling a great deal better with our renewed memories of the old class of '58.

CLASS HISTORY

We the Seniors of '58 have almost completed our twelve years of school. A few more days and we will be receiving our long awaited diplomas. As we wait for these diplomas, we look back over the years of happy schooling which have been ours at Bonlee High School.

Twelve years ago we entered our first year of school. We were a big, happy group of kids, anxious to make friends with one another. For eight years we enjoyed our elementary grades. They were full but happy, and we learned to like school as we learned, for which we owe thanks to all of our teachers for their patience and for the faith they had in us.

In '54 we started our Freshman year of high school. Mrs. Betty Leonard welcomed us as our home room teacher. That year we received a big thrill getting used to our new schedule, having more than one teacher, and changing classes. Our class officers were President, Wayne Rose; Vice-President, Donald Whitt; Secretary and Treasurer, Sonny Dark. Our small fund-raising experience came from working in the cafeteria at the Hallowe'en Carnival.

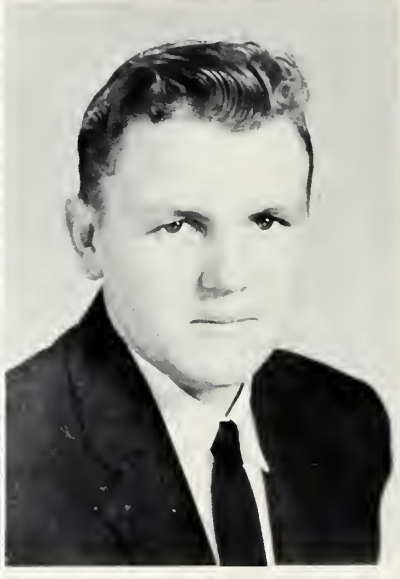
In '55 most of us became Sophomores. That year Mr. Shumar gave us a hearty welcome into his room. Our Class officers were President, Anne Cooke; Vice-President, Sulon Holt; Secretary, Larry Reid; Treasurer, Betty Lou Branson. Again that year we worked hard in the cafeteria to make money at the Hallowe'en Carnival. One of the big thrills of the year for our girls was being waitresses at the Junior-Senior Banquet in the spring.



In '56 we entered our Junior year of high school. Mr. Wilson had to divide his time between duties as principal and being our home-room teacher. Class Officers this time were President, Boyd Harris; Secretary, Emma Jean Calicutt; Treasurer, Earl Phillips. That year we gave the Junior play, which was titled "Aunt Cathy's Cat" . . It was a great success, we thought, and we surely enjoyed every minute of the production. The high spot of that year was the Junior-Senior Banquet, which we, along with the Seniors, enjoyed very much. Being host to the Seniors gave us a special thrill and made us feel important.

GARRETTE EARLE PHILLIPS - "Plural" . . . . short . . . . like those clothes. Glee Club 2,4; Class Officer 3; 4-H Club Officer 1,2,3,4- County Council Officer 3,4.

PATRICIA ANN WEBSTER - "Tricia" .... always busy .... teacher of the future. Glee club 1,2,3,4, Recitation Contest 1,2; Class President 3; Beta Club-Treasurer 3, President 4; Basketball 1,2,3,4; Cheerleader 1,2; Miss Junior 3; Senior Marshal 3; Softball 1,2; Annual Staff 4; Banquet Waitress 2; Junior Play Cast.

Then in the fall of '57 we became Seniors. Miss Sadie Holleman, our home room teacher, greeted us with a friendly smile. This was our last and most exciting year of school and we looked forward to it with enthusiasm. We were a little sad because, little by little our number had divided to only twenty-five. Our class officers were President, Wayne Rose; Vice-President, Lib Gaines; Secretary, Patsy Fields; Treasurer, Emma Jean Calicutt. That year we published the "Bonlee Gazette" and the "Treasured Leaves." The Juniors gave us a lovely banquet, which we will always remember. Our greatest thrill was when we received our class rings. We were really proud of them. We also gave our Senior Play which seemed very successful. Now, we are about to walk down the aisle in our caps and gowns to receive our diplomas. Time has changed us in many ways, and we are not as happy as we thought, realizing that soon we are leaving the carefree days at Bonlee School, but hoping we are ready to face the future- on our own.
